The vessel, in brief

The Quickfish permits speed on water and land alike. Its COTS design makes it fast to build and quick to maintain. Its simplicity means it takes just 3-5 days training. And its powerful propulsion means it can exceed 35 knots. Launched remotely from dock or mooring, it can monitor, intercept and ID anywhere from ports to oceans. Its internal drone platform can extend its presence and capabilities, for closer inspection or as a show of force.

Holds long range radar and EO/IR sensors. A modular payload bay enables aerial launch capabilities. Combined, these make Quickfish as affordable as it is effective.
